Quarantine for Danish West Indies against arrivals from Smyrna.

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 13, 1900.

SIR: I have the honor to inclose for your information a copy of a dispatch from the minister of the United States at Copenhagen, stating that he has been informed that, owing to the appearance of the plague, the government of the Danish West Indies has declared a quarantine of two weeks against ships that arrive from Smyrna, or that have communicated with said port, or that on their voyage have come in contact with ships arriving therefrom.

Respectfully,

DAVID J. HILL,
Acting Secretary.

Hon. SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.
